

STATINTL

PANEL OPENS INVESTIGATION: Commission appointed by President Johnson to make an investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy holds its first meeting. From the left, are: Allen W. Dulles, former head of the C. I. A.; Representative Hale Boggs, Democrat of Louisiana;

Senator John Sherman Cooper, Republican of Kentucky; Chief Justice Earl Warren, who heads the panel; Senator Richard Russell, Georgia Democrat; John J. McCloy, the former White House adviser on disarmament, and Representative Gerald R. Ford, Republican of Michigan.

Associated Press Wirephoto